

LETTERS FROM TWO STATES.

WINDHAM COUNTY.

CENTRAL VILLAGE

Attended D. A. R. Picnic at Lord's Point—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith Spending Vacation Abroad—An Active Nongovernment.

Roger Williams of South Britain spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams.

Mrs. Julia Newton, Mrs. Willis Rouse and Mrs. Hoxie Lillibridge went to Lord's Point in Stoughton Thursday to attend a picnic given by the D. A. R. at the home of Mrs. John Gallup, who is spending the summer there at present.

Mrs. Emma Owens, formerly a resident here, has been visiting friends the past week.

Gate Tender O'Neil Resigns.

Michael O'Neil, who has been the gate tender at the railroad crossing the past two years, has resigned and has returned to his home in Plainfield, John Sullivan has the position.

Arthur Harrington has returned from Putnam, where he has been spending two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Hopton have returned from Marlboro, Mass., where they have been spending a few days.

William Dean visited relatives in Greene, R. I. Saturday.

Cyprian Make Short Visit.

A band of gypsies were in the village Saturday, but moved on as few fared for the fortune telling tribe.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Allan Moffitt is spending several days with relatives in Canterbury.

Miss Helen Benedict of Plainfield was the guest of Misses Ruth and Pauline Mathewson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Byles are spending two weeks at the home of Postmaster Charles A. Byles.

Miss May Lambert has returned from a visit with relatives in Westbury, R. I.

William Newton, who has been spending two weeks at his mother's home here, returned to Providence, where he has a position in R. L. So's grocery store.

Master Maurice and Miss Margaret Torrey are spending a week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Thatcher, in Canterbury.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jolett have returned from South Britain, where they have been spending a week with relatives.

Master Edmund Trudeau of Moosup is visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Myra Mahew of Putnam is spending the week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farland.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Byles and two children of New York are spending two weeks at the home of Postmaster Charles A. Byles.

Mr. Nathaniel Lester is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Howard Cross have been visiting relatives in Putnam.

Misses Edythe Evers and Serena Reed visited friends in Wauregan on Sunday.

Mr. Collinda McStay and daughter, Miss Mildred, were guests of Mrs. Charles Morse in Wauregan Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Williams visited friends in Dayville Sunday.

Everett Richmond has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richmond, in Elmville.

Albion Edwards, who has been the guest of Danielson relatives.

Raymond Ryder, who has been working in a bakery in Attleboro, Mass., has returned to his home.

Sailed for England.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell left Tuesday morning for Boston, where they sailed on Saxonia steamer for several weeks' visit in England.

Mrs. Denby and son left Tuesday for a visit in Canada.

Mrs. Cosmer Young of Danielson was a Sunday visitor.

Mrs. David Connolly and cousin, Mrs. Jane Campbell, spent Monday at the Willimantic camp ground, where they will go later to spend two weeks at a cottage there.

Miss Myrtle Pellet of Elmville was the guest of Miss Elsie Ladd Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Williams and son Arthur spent Sunday at William Williams' in Marlboro.

Moses Ballou of Uxbridge spent Sunday with his family, who are spending the summer with Mrs. Ballou's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Thayer of Putnam visited relatives Sunday.

Ninety Years Young.

Mrs. George Loring has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Loring from Washington. He is ninety years old and a very active man.

Mrs. Samuel Collins and daughter, Miss Ethel, attended the wedding of a relative in Sterling Monday afternoon.

Nathaniel P. Thompson has been visiting Norwich relatives.

W. C. T. U. Members Picnic.

Members of the W. C. T. U. enjoyed a basket picnic at the home of Mrs. George R. Bilven Tuesday afternoon.

Sunday School Picnic Committee.

Rev. George Benedict, L. Howard Cross and Howard Byles were appointed a committee to make arrangements for a Sunday school picnic.

Charles Nuttall has returned to his duties at the C. E. Barber's hardware store after two weeks' vacation.

Daniel Dutton of the Norwich and Central Village electric car has been spending a few days at his home here on account of illness.

Fitch A. Denby and his grandson, Walter Tillman, were Norwich visitors Tuesday.

Several of our people were in Norwich Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George R. Torrey who has been seriously ill the past two weeks is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Greedy Brown and two children of Groton are spending a few days at the Brown home at Black Hill.

Mrs. Herman Chapman is entertaining her sister, Miss Ethel Tripp of Danielson.

Mrs. John L. Chapman and little daughter, Marian, leave Saturday for Block Island for a few days.

Mrs. George Loring was in Griswold Wednesday to attend Mrs. John Potter's funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Asher Stark and two little sons took an auto trip here from Providence Wednesday to visit Mr. Stark's sister, Miss Harriet Stark.

Henry Allen Donahue is entertaining his cousin, Mr. Jewett of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Olive Dutton is entertaining Miss Hanson of New London.

WAUREGAN

Master Mechanic Henry N. Wood Offers Resignation—Has Been With Wauregan Company Forty Years.

Henry N. Wood has tendered his resignation to take effect September first. He has been in the employ of the Wauregan company for forty years and has been master mechanic for the past twenty-five years.

Rev. E. F. Talmadge at Moosup.

Rev. E. F. Talmadge will conduct the evening service of the Methodist church in Moosup next Sunday.

Persons.

Mrs. C. W. Perkins of Occum visited with friends in this place the past week.

Conrad Russell was a visitor in Worcester the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thatcher and little son of Boston are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Marcelle Jette.

Mrs. Arthur Millington of Springfield, Mass., is spending a short time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bator.

Mrs. Charles Wood and Miss Besse Wood were in Worcester on Thursday.

HAMPTON

Funeral of Hiram H. Botham—Bull Gores Horse in Shoulder, Necessitating 18 Stitches.

Mrs. John Cleveland was in Hartford this week.

Mrs. Wallace Jewett visited friends in Norwich Monday.

Miss Lella Pitts is visiting in Bristol, Conn., at the home of her brother, Claude Pitts.

Mr. Charles Pitts was a Willimantic visitor Monday.

Howard Bennett made a trip to Willimantic on Monday.

Mrs. Hattie Whiting spent Sunday at the home of her parents.

Fred Nason spent Sunday in Hampton.

Miss Fay Darrow returned to her home in New London Monday.

Marius Jewett is visiting relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Mr. Cheney of South Manchester spent Wednesday at the Prospect house.

Roston Pell of New York was at the Prospect over Sunday.

Mrs. Hattie Whiting and daughter, Erdine, of Hope Valley, R. I., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Phillips.

Motoring Parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Allen, Mrs. F. J. Moran and Mrs. H. F. Seales, Mrs. Hattie Whiting, Mrs. M. L. Wood and Putnam on Saturday.

Mrs. Roston Pell, Marion Pell and Miss Ella Baldwin went to Pomfret by automobile on Saturday to meet Mr. Pell, who arrived there on the New York express.

Mrs. B. W. Bok, Mrs. R. J. Whitte-gore and Miss "Red" Whitte-gore were automobile visitors to Pomfret last Tuesday.

Miss Della Lynch, Miss Lillian Riley, Miss Ethel Riley, Joseph Brandy and F. A. Phillips motored to South Coventry and back Wednesday evening.

Mr. Cheney, Miss Clara Downing, Miss May Anthony and Miss M. L. Bent attended an entertainment given by the Shetucket grange in Scotland recently, going by automobile.

George arrived at the Prospect house at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. He is Miss Clara Downing of Hartford, Mrs. W. L. Darby and little son, and Miss Elsie Vint of Astoria, N. Y.

Robert W. Forrester, Miss M. L. Forrester and Miss Margaret S. Forrester of Providence.

Mrs. Edward Fuller of Providence, who is spending the summer here, called on friends at the Prospect house Saturday.

Horse Gored by Bull.

A black horse owned by Grant Jessup was gored in the left shoulder by a bull patrolled during the week. The horse was taken to W. S. Ford who sewed and dressed the wound, taking eighteen stitches to close it properly.

Funeral of Hiram H. Botham.

The funeral of Hiram Botham of Providence was held at the home of his sister, Mrs. Fred Litchfield, in the Litchfield cemetery. Rev. Mr. Woodwell officiated.

Mr. Botham was operated on for an abscess three weeks ago and seemed to be well on the road to recovery until last Saturday, when he had a relapse from which he did not rally.

Miss A. M. Burnham has had all branches broken by the 1908 ice storm and deadwood trimmed from the large oak in front of the Curtis place.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Three Men May Be Jurors—Elms on Public Grounds Sprayed—Attending Lake George Conference.

Miss Gertrude Phillips, postmistress, has been in Providence on a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Barker and son returned to Pittsford, Pa., early in the week.

One of this place who are liable for jury duty in the superior court are H. T. Wells, Frank Shippee and B. R. Ritch.

Louis Southworth secured a goodly sum by subscription for spraying the elms on the public grounds recently and the fine trees near his home and those in the churchyard and around grounds were given careful treatment. It is a pity that some fine specimens on private grounds are not duly cared for as their days seem numbered without it.

Miss Mary Flynn recently went to Norwich to visit her father, Daniel Flynn, who has a good position at the State Prison.

Mrs. Duncan Taylor and Miss Julia of Lakeside left for New York on Thursday from whence Mrs. Taylor went to Crystal Bay, Lake George, to attend the annual conference with other friends. Miss Hays of New York is at Lakeside in charge of Mrs. Taylor's boys in her absence.

CANTERBURY.

Personal News of the Week—Local People Attended Circus.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Larkham and children of Plain Hill, Norwich, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Levi N. Clark Sunday.

Miss Bertha M. Clark was the guest of Mrs. Nellie Carpenter at Lisbon over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tillman called on their daughter, Mrs. George L. Tillman, at her home in Norwich.

Theodore Kendall of Lisbon has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Benjamin Brown, the past week.

Dr. Helen Baldwin of New York city is at the home of her brother, Henry Baldwin, on a vacation.

Several from this vicinity attended the circus at Norwich Tuesday.

WEST WOODSTOCK

Frank Maule, William Maule of Passaic, N. J., Leslie Harris of New Rochelle, N. Y., and Miss Chase of Rhode Island are the new arrivals at Kenil.

John C. Sheffield, an inmate of the Fitch house for soldiers at Noroton Heights, Ct., paid a few days' visit at his home here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Morrarty and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Garfield, all of Southbridge, were guests of G. Anderson's Sunday.

Samuel Thompson of New Jersey visited his sister, Miss Jennie Thompson, this week.

Mrs. Lydia Williams and Miss Mary Williams of Hartford are at the Williams home here.

ATTAWAUGAN

Mrs. Lapearl was moved to Danielson last Sunday to her sister's.

Miss Albert Holliston and her two children, Emma and Walter, are visiting in Pittsfield, Mass.

Misses Ruth and May Emerson left Mrs. Rollinson Tuesday to visit their aunt, Mrs. John Dunne, of Tataville.

William Leflash is having a two weeks' vacation.

A number of people are complaining of colds.

Mrs. Charles Weeks, Daisy, Charles, Jr., and Clarence Weeks, were in Brooklyn, Sunday.

BROOKLYN

Congregational and Baptist Sunday Schools Hold Union Picnic—Jail Prisoner Has Freedom for a Day—Candidate Lake Visits in Town.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pond and daughter, after spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pond, have returned to their home in Providence.

Miss Alice Bolles, after visiting her sister, Mrs. Bolles, for two weeks, has returned to Danielson.

Union Picnic.

The Congregational and Baptist Sunday schools held a union picnic at Phillips' grove, Alexander Lake, on Tuesday.

Escaped Prisoner Recaptured.

On Monday forenoon a prisoner at the jail by the name of George Reed, while at work in the garden near the jail in charge of a keeper, escaped and was captured in the evening at Moosup and returned to prison.

Visit Lengthened by Quarantine.

Mrs. DeWitt C. Park has returned to her family, after a detained absence of several days, having been quarantined at the home of her daughter, as she had been taken with diphtheria, soon after her arrival.

Mrs. Elisha B. Mead of Greenwich, with her two children, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bradford.

Miss Helen Sharpe is spending her summer vacation with her mother, Mrs. James Lowry.

Mrs. Samuel T. Cooper is visiting her children in New London.

Martin A. Kraus, after spending a short vacation with his family, has returned to his labors in New York.

Hon. Everett Lake, a candidate for the office of governor in town on Wednesday, looking the field over and laying wires to secure if possible the nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher M. Gallup, former residents, were callers upon friends during the week.

William F. Warner of Newtonville, Mass., spent Sunday with Mrs. George G. Gilbert.

EAST WOODSTOCK

Six Year Old Boy Falls from High Beam—127 Mile Automobile Tour.

Miss Fanny Upham of Webster is visiting her brother, G. L. Upham, and family.

Mr. Jane Warren of Danielson is keeping house for her brother, William Hastings, who has been keeping bachelor's hall for several months.

Clayton Street, six years of age, fell from the high beam of the barn last week, striking on his head. He had several hemorrhages from the ears and nose, but is now recovering under the care of Mrs. Harry Nickerson and child of Providence are guests of Mrs. Granville Perry.

Miss Zella and Rena Bunch of South Manchester are visiting their cousin, Mrs. E. E. May.

Several from here are attending the Douglas camp meeting this week.

Mr. C. C. Gildersleeve and sons will return from their outing at Pleasant View, R. I., this week.

J. D. Sanger, Fred Davidson, Mrs. M. J. Sanger and Mrs. M. J. Sanger, with William Crawford of Putnam as chauffeur, enjoyed a 127 mile ride Sunday through Massachusetts in Mr. Sanger's touring car. Several hours were spent with Mrs. Mary Sanger at Springfield and a hurried call made on Mrs. Ernest Rice at Barre, both former residents and relatives of Mr. Sanger and Mrs. Morse.

STERLING

Epworth League Elects Delegates to Convention at Willimantic—With the Visitors.

William Johnson has returned home from two weeks' vacation at Old Orchard, Me.

Mrs. James Thorneley are entertaining friends from out of town.

The Epworth league social was held on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. F. J. Thompson. A large number of friends and all enjoyed a pleasant evening. During the business session Miss Edna Chester, Mrs. Roy Thomas and Mrs. W. W. Vaughn were elected delegates to the Epworth league convention at Willimantic in August.

Miss Augusta C. Millet of Boston has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Vaughn.

Mrs. and Mrs. Albert Wentworth visited friends in Rhode Island recently.

Miss Edna Ayers of Dayville was the guest of Miss Mary Douglas over Sunday.

The Epworth league prayer meeting was held in the vestry on Thursday evening at 7:30.

Mr. Edward J. Thompson of Boston is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Vaughn.

WOODSTOCK

New York Clergymen, Former Pastor Here, Addresses C. E. Society—Visitors of the Week.

Rev. L. T. Lindholm of New York spoke at the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening. Mr. Lindholm, a former pastor at the Swedish church, with his family, is spending the summer in town.

E. R. Hall and Clarence R. Hall are at Block Island.

Miss Parke of Andover is the guest of Miss Mary G. Perley.

S. T. Dutton of New York spent Sunday with his son-in-law, Rev. Frederick Leach.

Spencer H. Child of South Lancaster, Mass., was home over Sunday.

R. K. Safford and family were at Lord's Point, Stonington, last week, the guests of Justin S. Green.

Miss Mabel Ritch arrived home for her vacation Sunday evening.

Mrs. Andrew Rogers of Norwich and Mrs. L. R. Southworth of New York are at the Southworth home.

Judge Albert Mathewson of New Haven, who is spending with his mother, Mrs. William Mathewson.

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

The Misses Roach have returned to Woodstock from a visit to New York.

Miss Della Newell of Spencer, Mass., spent Sunday at G. L. Keach's.

Miss Hazel Keach spent Sunday at home.

William N. Whiting and B. E. Jacobs of Providence spent last week at Allan Kenyon's.

The Clover circle met last week with Miss Louise Kenyon.

John C. Paine of Bridgeport recently called on friends here.

Walter Barrett entertained his brother and family on Sunday, coming from Springfield by automobile.

Will E. Bacon of East Boston visited his cousin, Mrs. Allen W. Kenyon, last week.

Mrs. Emma Spencer and Miss Emma Spencer returned to their home in Pomfret on Wednesday.

Mrs. Vroom and children and the Misses Newhall of East Orange, N. J., are at their summer home here.

Misses Corinne and Louise Massicot of Providence are visiting Miss J. Louise Kenyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of Danielson and Mrs. Deane were at Allan Kenyon's on Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest Spencer of Pomfret and Mrs. Alex Brennan of Providence were at Allan Kenyon's on Wednesday.

RAWSON

Kent Bros. have just purchased an automobile.

Frank Phillips was a Sunday evening visitor in Willimantic.

Clarence Cunningham of Elliotte was a recent visitor at Mrs. Dwight Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Phillips made an auto trip to Putnam on Saturday. Edward Berggren is entertaining his sister, Mrs. Barnes, of New York.

George Kimball was a recent Hartford visitor.

Mrs. E. W. Clapp of East Braintree, Mass., is the guest of her father, Dwight Burdick.

L. C. Stocking, Green Huling, Sumner Hillard and Alvin Sweet were Thread City callers on Saturday.

WESTMINSTER

Rev. A. A. Smith will preach on Second Advent—Local Jottings.

The pastor of the Congregational church, Rev. A. A. Smith, will preach Sunday morning on the Second Advent of Christ—its Meaning and Significance.

Mrs. A. A. Smith had charge of the C. E. spending Sunday evening.

A number from this place attended the birthday party of Miss Frederica Olney last week.

Miss Katherine, Plunket of New York city is spending her vacation with Mrs. C. Smith.

Dr. Samuel Bradford of Brooklyn was a caller Sunday.

The rain of Saturday evening was a great help to the vegetation in this vicinity.

POMFRET CENTER

Wolf Den Grange Planning for Picnic.

Mrs. Thomas A. Smathers and children of Norfolk, Va., are visiting E. E. Brown.

Miss Marjorie Brown has been visiting Mrs. Clara Case in Worcester, Mass.

Miss E. J. Clark and Mrs. Courtland Hoppin have gone to York Harbor, Me. for the heated season.

Wolf den grange are planning for their annual picnic.

Carl Sharpe is the new dairyman at Dr. F. Goodridge's Mashmoog farm. Pine street.

NORTH STERLING

Mrs. F. O. Plummer has been visiting friends in New London.

Edgar A. Lewis is the new mail carrier for the rural delivery route while the regular carrier, Arthur Logee, is at camp for ten days.

Henry H. Crowell of Willimantic, Dech a party of "his boys" where they will camp out for several days.

Miss Clara M. Spooner has been visiting friends in Danielson.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Cleaver, who have been visiting friends in New York, returned home Thursday.

HOWARD VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hawkes of Scotland visited the home of Mr. Hawkes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Hawkes, Sunday, the 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Loomis visited at F. A. Burnham's last Sunday.

The quarterly conference began in the Valley church Friday, the 22d, and will hold its next session on Saturday, the 23d.

William Davis and family visited in Scotland last Sunday.

TOLLAND COUNTY.

SOUTH COVENTRY.

Sunday School Members and Friends Enjoy Outing to Ocean Beach—Funeral of Henry Albro.

On Thursday 95 members of the Congregational Sunday school and their friends enjoyed an outing to Ocean Beach, New London, making the trip by special trolley.

Henry Albro Will Be Missed.

The funeral of Henry Albro was held at the home on Monday afternoon, Rev. Nestor Light conducting the service. William C. Latimer, William H. Armstrong, F. S. White and J. P. Curley acted as bearers. Interment was in the family lot in Nathan Hale cemetery.

Though Mr. Albro has been shut-in for several years, no one in active life could be more greatly missed, his bedside being almost constantly surrounded by visitors and friends who enjoyed his sociability and cheer. Having traveled much in his younger days, and having an excellent memory, Mr. Albro had many interesting episodes to relate. His daughter, Miss Hattie Albro, who alone has been his devoted companion and nurse during his illness, has the sympathy of all her friends.

Electric Street Lights.

The new electric street lights are now in use.

Mrs. Briggs Returns from Hospital.

Mrs. Mary Briggs, who has been at a private hospital in Willimantic for several months, receiving treatment for rheumatism from Dr. W. C. Loring, is taking fire while burning rubbish in her yard, has returned to her home on Manning Hill. Miss Perkins of Andover is calling on her.

Mrs. Grace Rogers and Miss Mabel Rogers of Middletown have been the guests of their cousin, W. H. Armstrong, at his home, Mr. J. C. Armstrong, the past week.

GURLEYVILLE

Ox Cut by Moving Machine—Misses Dunham Hold Lawn Social—Personal.

While haying last week one of Arthur Hobby's oxen was cut badly with the moving machine.

Mrs. Bentley is entertaining relatives from South Britain.

Miss Ethel Simonds was the guest of Mrs. John Dunham at Mansfield Center over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wynn and son spent Sunday at South Willimantic.

Mrs. G. A. Walker and Mrs. George Dimock were callers at Rev. Frank Chamberlain's of the Willimantic church Monday.

$3 for Ladies Benevolent Society.

A social was held Wednesday evening with the Misses Arlene and Marguerite Dunham at their home. The lawn was attractive with Japanese lanterns, ice cream and cake were served by several young ladies. They were in charge of the whole affair. The sum of $3 was added to the treasury of the Ladies Benevolent Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Langer are the victors of a boy, born last Sunday morning.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Fine Oat Field—Personal Mention.

Mrs. Fred L. Brown has returned, after a visit with relatives at Crescent Beach.

Miss Mary L. Park made a flying trip to Long Island and Brooklyn, N. Y., last week.

Judge and Mrs. A. G. Kneeland were Sunday callers in Colchester.

Mrs. F. O. Brown and daughter, Clara, were visiting Mrs. Frank Pease of Middletown.

Mrs. Symms of Boston is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Myron R. Abbe.

Spaulding brothers have 7-1-2 acres of oats which stand six feet tall. While mowing in the last L. Spaulding found the remains of a deer.

Miss Amy Rogers, a sister of Mrs. William Chamberlain, died at St. Joseph's hospital, Willimantic, Saturday. The funeral was held Tuesday morning and burial was in Willimantic.

Another Claim to Fame.

It begins to look, too, as though Nevada was the only state where the exhibition of the fight pictures will be allowed.—Kansas City Times.

COLUMBIA

Summer Residents Arrive—Lebanon Team Defeats Local Players—Ladies' Afternoon Club Raises Money for Village Improvement.

The DeBays family of New Orleans have arrived in town and will spend the remainder of the summer at their summer residence on Woodward Hill near the west shore of the lake.

A large number of summer boarders and visitors are in town at present. Among late arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dix and Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Little of Hartford.

Mrs. William H. Tharp and children of Louisville, Ky., are occupying the summer residence of Mr. Tharp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lyman, near the lake where they expect to remain until September. Prof. Tharp is expecting to join his family early in August.

Mr. Charles Hitchcock of Pittsburg, Penn., was visiting relatives in town recently.

Baseball game was played on the Green last Saturday afternoon by the Lebanon nine and the locals. The rain put a stop to the game at the seventh inning when the score stood 11 to 6 in favor of the Lebanon.

Cecil L. Gates and family of Kansas City, Mo., have arrived in town and will spend the remainder of the summer at their pleasant cottage in the southwest district. Mr. Gates is a general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and for several years was located at Atlantic City, N. J.

Rev. W. H. Harris who for the past week had been on the sick list was assisted at the morning service last Sunday by Mr. Gates.

Attorney Charles F. Clarke and daughter of Hamden were guests of Mr. Clarke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Clarke over the Sabbath.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Abrahams are entertaining several friends from New Rochelle at their pleasant home in Pine street.

Camping Parties.

A party of young ladies from one of the Hartford churches, in charge of their pastor are camping at Columbia Lake. They attended church in a body Sunday.

On Tuesday of